Review

Net sales, net profits, ordinary profits and operating profits reached record high for the first half of the year.

- Sales have increased against a background of orders received.

Net sales, net profits, ordinary profits and operating profits have reached the highest-ever level exceeding our expectation.

We are expanding our production capacity with a view to the second half.

Review by region

- Japan

Both domestic and overseas sales are looking good.

Our factories are in full operation by increase in orders.

- The Americas

The US aerospace and general engineering industry have played a major role in increasing demand.

Mexico has performed well continuously.

Our performance in Canada has improved for the better since March .

- Europe/Africa

Europe and Africa are showing great performance uninterruptedly; We focus on PMI with companies that we merged .

- Asia

There is a great demand in China and Taiwan especially; Sales in South Asia have increased rapidly.
